

RESILIENT HOUSTON: Documenting Hurricane Harvey

We invite you to join us for a presentation of this work

Thursday, December 5, 2019 6:00 p.m. - 7:30 p.m.

at the African American Library at the Gregory School

1300 Victor St. (entrance/parking on Cleveland)

“Resilient Houston: Documenting Hurricane Harvey” is a project of the UH Center for Public History to collect and preserve oral histories about the storm to better understand its impact on people in the Houston region. Students in the Honors Voices from the Storm class conducted interviews, created short films, and contributed to an ongoing website to document this seminal event in Houston history.

UNIVERSITY of HOUSTON
CENTER for PUBLIC HISTORY

This program was made possible in part by Humanities Texas, the state affiliate for the National Endowment for the Humanities.

SURVIVORS

RESPONDERS

VOLUNTEERS

If you have any questions, please contact:

Debbie Z. Harwell
dzharwell@uh.edu
713-743-3123