

FROM #BLACKLIVESMATTER TO BLACK LIBERATION

FEATURING: KEEANGA-YAMAHTTA TAYLOR

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 20 | RECEPTION AT 5:00 PM, LECTURE AT 5:30 PM
HILTON HOTEL, SHAMROCK BALLROOM | UNIVERSITY OF HOUSTON

KEEANGA-YAMAHTTA TAYLOR is Assistant Professor & Charles H. McIlwain University Preceptor, Department of African-American Studies, Princeton University. Taylor received the Lannan Foundation's Cultural Freedom Award for her book, From #BlackLivesMatter to Black Liberation (Haymarket Books, 2016).

Taylor's most recent book, How We Get Free: Black Feminism and the Combahee River Collective, also with Haymarket Books (2017) won the 2018 Lambda Literary Award for LGBTQ Nonfiction.

Sponsored by the Cullen Chair in History and Business, African-American Studies, and Department of History at University of Houston

For more information, contact Dr. David McNally, Department of History, djmcnally@uh.edu

UNIVERSITY of HOUSTON

COLLEGE of LIBERAL ARTS & SOCIAL SCIENCES
Department of History