The Critical Study of Culture and Freedom in American Society

Muhammad Ali's legal battle to obtain conscientious objector status and a ministerial exemption from serving in the U.S. Armed Forces represents a key moment in redefining the meaning of civil rights, freedom and self-determination in African American history. This lecture explores Ali's ministry of the Nation of Islam's Mosque No. 45 in Houston, Texas, as a critical space in locating Ali's thought and practice as it relates to race, religion and war.
