

Student Name _____ Major _____ Date _____

Student ID _____ Email _____

Communication Sciences and Disorders Minor

Requirements are 18 hours of specified course work, nine of which are advanced. Nine semester hours must be in residence of which 6 must be advanced. Students who are completing a minor in Communication Sciences and Disorders must earn a minimum grade of C in each minor course.

Students can only take the courses that have been approved by the department. Students will be dropped from courses not in their plan. Neither the department nor the instructor will be responsible for tuition refunds when dropped from a course the student was not eligible.

Students can NOT take courses in the department not on their plan. Courses must be taken in sequential order.

Required Courses (9 hours):

- COMD 1333 Introduction to Communication Sciences and Disorders
- COMD 2338 Phonetics OR COMD 2376 Anatomy for Communication
- COMD 2339 Language Development

Remaining 9 Advanced hours completed via:

- COMD 3301 History and Culture of the Deaf Community
- COMD 3321 Multicultural Experiences in Communication Sciences and Disorders
- COMD 3322 Code Switching and Linguistic Justice
- COMD 3371 Speech Development and Disorders in Children OR COMD 3383 Language Disorders in Children
- COMD 3396 Special Topics

| Course | Course Title | Semester Offered | Semester to be Completed | Grade |
|-------------------------------|-----------------------------|------------------|--------------------------|-------|
| COMD 1333 | Intro to COMD | Fall and Spring | | |
| COMD 2338 OR COMD 2376 | Phonetics OR Anatomy | Fall and Spring | | |
| COMD 2339 | Language Development | Fall and Spring | | |
| Advanced COMD Course | | | | |
| Advanced COMD Course | | | | |
| Advanced COMD Course | | | | |

Notes: COMD 3301 and COMD 3321 are Fall Courses Only. COMD 3322 is a Spring Course Only.