

Studio Bio Blurb (Example)

Ashley Smith, a junior at the Valenti School of Communication pursuing a career in journalism wants to use her degree as a stepping-stone to becoming the next Katie Couric. She has interned for The Houston Chronicle and worked for The Daily Cougar, most recently as entertainment editor. She serves the UH student IABC chapter as secretary and is a CLASS senator in the Student Senate. A member of the Honor's College, Ashley has made the Dean's List every semester at UH and hopes to graduate Magna Cum Laude or better. She will work as a production assistant for Great Day Houston this summer.

103 words

Things to include:

- Your name
- Your year in college
- Your target degree(s) and/or areas of concentration (e.g., journalism, media production)
- Your current ambition in life or the job you hope to land after graduation
- Information about internships or other special experiences relevant to your communication degree
- Activities you're involved in
- Major accomplishments/honors
- One interesting fact about you

Your bio should not exceed 150 words.