

UNIVERSITY of HOUSTON

CENTER for INTERNATIONAL AND COMPARATIVE STUDIES

Presents a Lecture by:

The Honorable Marty McVey

United States Agency for International Development (USAID)

“Diplomacy and Development in Conflict Countries”

Monday, October 27th at 2:30pm

Location: Farish Hall Room 101 (KIVA)

Hon. Marty McVey is an accomplished businessman and public servant with over 15 years of International Development, New Business Development and Social Justice expertise. He is President of McVey & Associates LLC, a private equity firm, and in 2011 President Barack Obama appointed Mr. McVey to serve as a Director of the United States Agency for International Development [USAID] Board for International Food and Agricultural Development [BIFAD]. His responsibility with the agency includes providing guidance to the federal government on investments in training, research, and technology transfer to developing countries. He is also Chairman for the BIFAD Haitian Reconstruction Task Force. He holds degrees from American University, Georgetown University and ESADE University and is a graduate of Harvard Business School’s “Developing Future Leaders” program. Follow him on Twitter: @MartyMcVey

For additional information please email cics@central.uh.edu