

US and Iran: Is a Diplomatic Solution Finally Possible?

Presented by:

CICS and UNA USA Campus Advocates at UH

*Thursday October 24 at 3pm
in Roy Cullen 104*

The Center for International and Comparative Studies, in a partnership with United Nations Association-USA Campus Advocates, is delighted to host Dr. Trita Parsi, founder and president of the National Iranian American Council (NIAC) and an expert on US-Iranian relations, Iranian foreign politics, and the geopolitics of the Middle East.

Dr. Parsi will explore the relationship between the United States and the Islamic Republic of Iran, focusing on the most recent developments following the election of President Hasan Rouhani and the apparent rapprochement. In addition, Dr. Parsi will offer his analysis of what can be expected following this unprecedented turn of events.
