

“Murder on the Bayou: Jose Campos Torres and Police Brutality”

This event is free and open to the public

Featuring : Dr. Dwight Watson

Dr. Dwight D. Watson is an Associate Professor of History at Texas State University. His specializations include African American History, Police and Violence and the Civil Rights Movement. He is interested in how race and law impact United State History. He is the author of A Change Did Come: Race and the Houston Police Department, 1930-1982.

Friday, October 28th, 1:30 pm

CVL (Concept Visualization Lab) 315 McElhinney Hall University of Houston central campus