

Join us for the Spring Launch Party!

Agency: The Quest for Civil Rights

- Meet the authors
- Tour the historic African American Library at Gregory School, featured in the magazine
- Visit the permanent exhibits and “Wandering Spirit: African Wax Prints”
- Enjoy light refreshments and hors d’oeuvres

This issue features articles on the Camp Logan Incident in 1917 and the student-led civil rights movement, along with difference-makers Eleanor Tinsley, Coach Bill Yeoman, and Guadalupe Quintanilla, founder of the Cross Cultural Communication Program.

The “Departments” articles highlight preservation of the Gregory School, preservationist Minnette Boesel, and the KUHT/TSU production People are Taught to be Different.

Thursday, May 18, 2017
Reception

5:30 - 7:00 p.m.

The African American Library
at the Gregory School
1300 Victor St.
Houston, TX 77019
(parking and entrance on opposite side of building on Cleveland St.)

Sponsored by

UNIVERSITY of HOUSTON

CENTER for PUBLIC HISTORY

RSVP

Debbie Harwell, Houston History

houstonhistory@uh.edu

713.743.3123

Please see second page for map
and magazine table of contents

TABLE OF CONTENTS

FEATURES:

- 2 | Camp Logan 1917: Beyond the Veil of Memory
By Matthew Crow

- 8 | Remembering "The Mouse that Roared": Eleanor Tinsley and Houston
By Marina Donlevy Shimer

- 13 | Guadalupe Quintanilla: Defying the Odds
By Adriana Castro

- 18 | The Original Bona Fide Dude: Coach Bill Yeoman and Early UH Football
By Ryan Graham

- 23 | Edrewey Stearns and Houston's Student Civil Rights Movement
By Michael Anderson

DEPARTMENTS:

PRESERVATION

- 28 | Building on Intellectual Foundations: Creating the African American Library at the Gregory School
By Ela Miljkovic

- 33 | Minnette Boesel: "Invest in History!" Houston's Preservation and Adaptive Reuse Advocate
By Silvia Celeste Martinez

FROM THE ARCHIVES

- 39 | Progressive Programming at KUHT: People are Taught to be Different
By Emily Vinson

- 43 | NEWS AND BOOKS
By Barbara Eaves

EXHIBIT

Wandering Spirit:
African Wax Prints
May 15, 2017 – August 16, 2017

King's Chair Dress Form, introduced in 1980, manufactured by Visco, Netherlands; Dutch Wax Block on cotton, 59 x 15.5 inches; Courtesy of Beatrice Benson Collection

Linking YOU to the World
www.houstonlibrary.org

The African American Library at the Gregory School is located at 1300 Victor Street in Houston's historic Freedmen's Town.

From West Gray, go north on Cushing St. and turn left onto Cleveland St. for parking and entrance noted by a star on the map (Please note: the streets around the library are one-way)

