

Interested in an internship in US Latino Digital Humanities?

No prior experience in digital humanities required. Near-native Spanish reading and writing knowledge is preferred. Applicants must be current University of Houston undergraduates (Main campus).

Internships:

- USLDH-LULAC 60: May 20 – July 2
- USLDH-LULAC 60: June 24 – August 5
- USLDH-Mellon: June 2 – July 11

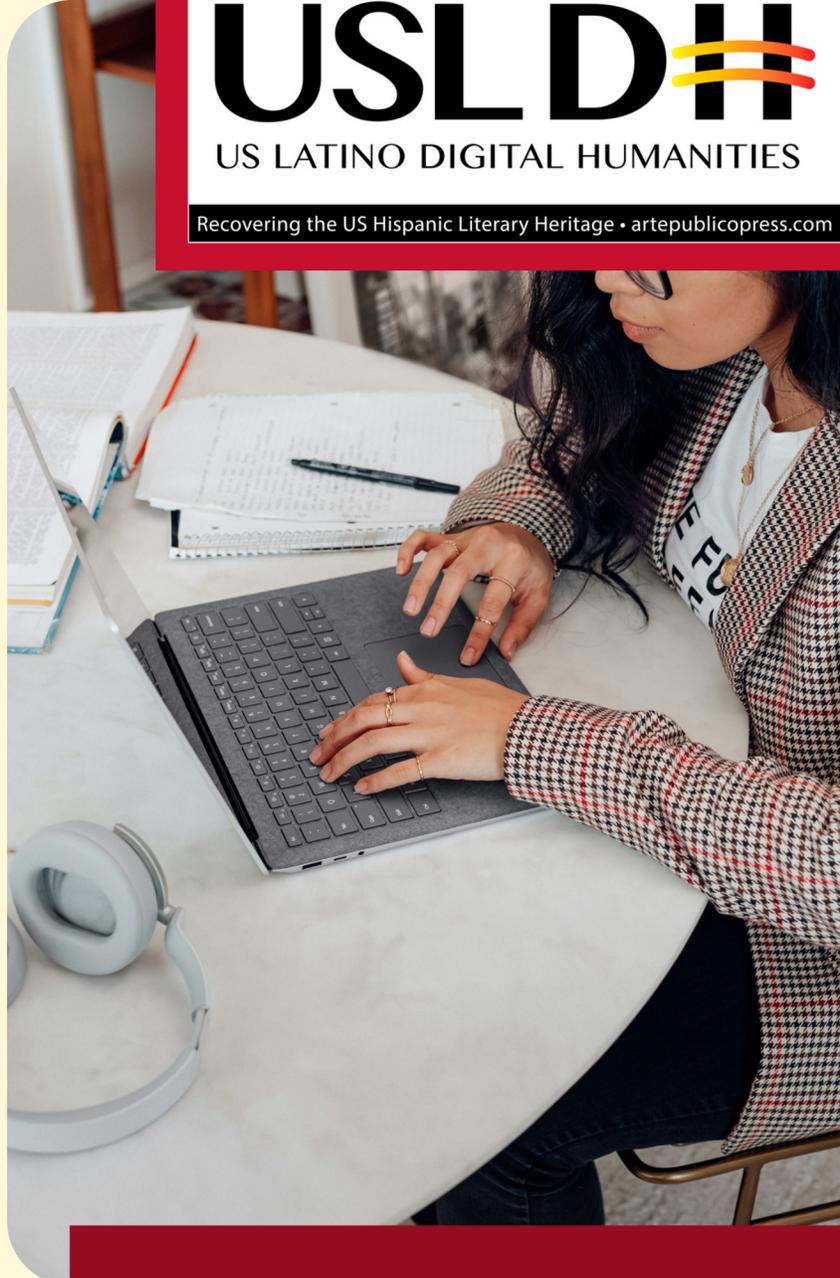

Duration: 19 hrs. a week max. (125 hours total)

Location: Arte Público Press (Technology Bridge)

Stipend amount: $2,500

Application deadline: April 5, 2024

Scan QR code for more info:

USLDH

US LATINO DIGITAL HUMANITIES

Recovering the US Hispanic Literary Heritage • artepublicopress.com

The US Latino Digital Humanities Center (USLDH) at Arte Público Press announces its summer internship opportunities for University of Houston undergraduate students. These internships will expose students to archival research, best practices, digital scholarship and tools, US Latino DH methodology and research approaches. Students will be able to receive both professional and intellectual formation during the course of the program.