Does the Language and Culture Center (LCC) offer tutoring for students?

Yes. If you need help with your studies, you may request tutoring from the LCC. Ask your teacher to arrange an appointment for you.

What are the special guidelines that tutors follow?

You should be aware of the following guidelines:

- Tutors will not use LCC textbooks for the current and immediately following term.
- Tutors will not correct LCC student assignments.
- An LCC student's current instructors may not be hired as his or her tutor.
- Tutors may confer with an LCC student's Core Teacher with the student's permission.

Can I hire a personal tutor?

Yes. A current list of LCC-approved private tutors is available in the LCC office located in room 116 of the Roy Cullen Building. You are expected to contact personal tutors directly and make private arrangements for the cost, materials, and location. The LCC makes no guarantees and assumes no responsibility for private tutoring arrangements.
