

02.10 Conversation Club

Does the Language and Culture Center (LCC) offer a Conversation Club?

Yes. Conversation Club is open to all currently enrolled LCC students. The LCC Conversation Club is a fun way for the following activities:

- improve your conversational English skills
- talk to native English speakers
- learn new words
- become more confident speaking English
- make friends with University of Houston (UH) students and other LCC students
- learn about other cultures
- compare social, cultural, and academic life in different countries
- get to know the UH campus

Where does Conversation Club take place?

You can participate in small group discussions led by UH students on campus excursions. In the past, Conversation Club members have enjoyed socials at the Student Centers, campus tours, sports at the gym, musical performances and plays, lunch at on-campus dining facilities, tours of art exhibits, UH sporting events, and volunteering opportunities.

What are Conversation Club topics?

Each term, Conversation Club's discussion topics are different. Popular topics include:

- holidays
- academic success
- body language
- relationships
- popular culture
- campus life
- food
- culture
