

Posted 3/15/2010

Recent Publications by Graduate Program Alums

The University of Houston History Department faculty is delighted to announce a number of recent publications by our former graduate students.

Dr. Norman Caulfield (Ph.D. 1990), a Professor of History at Fort Hays State University, published his second book--NAFTA and Labor in North America--in the distinguished series "The Working Class in American History" edited by James R. Barrett, Alice Kessler-Harris, Nelson Lichtenstein, and David Montgomery and published by the University of Illinois Press. More information about the book can be found at the University of Illinois Press website.

Dr. Angela Murphy (Ph.D. 2006), an Assistant Professor of History at Texas State University--San Marcos, recently published American Slavery, Irish Freedom: Antislavery, Immigrant Citizenship, and the Transatlantic Movement for Irish Repeal with Louisiana State University Press in the distinguished series "Antislavery, Abolition, and the Atlantic World" edited by R.J.M Blackett and James Brewer Stewart. More information about the book can be found at the LSU website.

Dr. Graham Cox (Ph.D. 2008), recently co-authored a textbook titled American Power, American People (Nunn McGinty Publishing, 2010) and has a forthcoming article titled "Herbert C. Pell, U.S. Representative on the United Nations War Crimes Commission, 1943-45." that will be published in Diplomats at War: The American Experience, edited by J. Simon Rofo (Republic of Letters Press, Netherlands, forthcoming 2011).

Mike Guardia (MA 2008), will publish American Guerrilla: The Forgotten Heroics of Russell W. Volckmann--the Man Who Escaped from Bataan, Raised a Filipino Army against the Japanese, and became the True "Father" of Army Special Forces in April 2010 with Casemate Publishers.

