

Posted 10/15/2010

UH HOSTS BOOK SYMPOSIUM ON 'SMELTERTOWN'

OCTOBER 28, 2010

New Book by History Professor Monica Perales Unearths Forgotten History of Mexican Americans

The University of Houston Department of History hosts a book symposium "Smelertown: Making and Remembering a Southwest Border Community," by UH professor of history Monica Perales. Two eminent scholars on Mexican American history, Vicki Ruiz, dean of humanities and professor of history at the University of California, Irvine and Ernesto Chavez, associate professor of history at the University of Texas, El Paso, will discuss the significance of book.

WHEN: 4 – 5:30 p.m., Thurs., Oct. 28 Free and open to the public. For questions or further information, call Kairn Klieman at (713) 743-3106 or kklieman@uh.edu

WHERE: The Honors College Commons, M.D. Anderson Library, 2nd Floor Public parking is available in the UH Welcome Center Garage Entrance 1 off Calhoun Road

Read press release online