

February 17, 2010

Upcoming Public History Events Announced

The University of Houston History Department is delighted to announce a number of upcoming events sponsored or co-sponsored by the Center for Public History <<http://www.history.uh.edu/cph/>>.

Thursday, February 18th. Lt. Calvin Spann, one of the Tuskegee Airmen, speaks at the Rockwell Pavilion in M.D. Anderson Library on Thursday February 18th at 11:00 am. The talk is co-sponsored by African American Studies and the Tenneco Lecture Series.

Wednesday, February 26th. Whose History? An Open Forum on the New Standards for Social Studies in Texas will be held in the Honors College Commons on Wednesday February 24th at 4:00 pm. The forum is co-sponsored by Center for Public History, Honors College, and Houston Teachers Institute.

Monday March 8th. Cities in the Americas Workshop will be conducted in the Bluebonnet Room at the University Center all day on March 8th. The workshop is co-sponsored by the Center for Public History and Tenneco Lecture Series.

Friday and Saturday, May 21st and 22nd. Energy Capitals workshop will be held all day at the Rockwell Pavilion in M.D. Anderson Library on Friday and Saturday, May 21st and 22nd. The workshop is sponsored by the Center for Public History and funded by a grant from the National Science Foundation.