UNIVERSITY of HOUSTON

COLLEGE of LIBERAL ARTS & SOCIAL SCIENCES

The Center for Arab Studies and the Arab-American Educational Foundation Chair in Modern Arab History Warmly Invite you to

The Inaugural Lecture of the Michael and Hoda Kardoush Lecture Series

IRAQ AFTERWARDS: EPISTEMIC VIOLENCE AND POETIC (IN)JUSTICE

WEDNESDAY NOVEMBER 2023

Reception 6:00 PM Lecture 6:30 PM

Presented by SINAN ANTOON

(New York University)

Sinan Antoon is an Iraqi-born poet, novelist, scholar, translator, and associate professor at the Gallatin School for Individualized Study at New York University. Sinan Antoon studied at the University of Baghdad, Georgetown University, and Harvard University. He has published two collections of poetry and four novels, and his literary works have been translated into fourteen languages. His scholarly publications include The Poetics of the Obscene: Ibn al-Hajjaj and Sukhf (Palgrave, 2014) and articles on the poetry of Mahmoud Darwish, Sargon Boulus, and Saadi Youssef. His most recent work is The Book of Collateral Damage (Yale University Press, 2019).

Hilton University of Houston Conrad Ballroom 4800 Calhoun, TX 77004

Parking:

Avaliable in the Underground Hotel Garage