

India Studies Program

in collaboration with

UH Asian American Studies Center & Comparative Cultural Studies Department

Bombay Bebingka's Many Travels Food, Colonialism, and Diasporic identities in India and Asia

a public lecture by

Dr. Anna Romina Guevarra

Founding Director of the Global Asian Studies Program

&

Associate Professor of Sociology

University of Illinois, Chicago

March 9th, 2023

This talk explores the spatial and temporal configurations of global/local foodways using a dessert, bibingka's/bebinca's multivalent culinary trajectories in South and Southeast Asia

START
10AM

Student Center-South Heights Room

END
11:30AM

College of Liberal Arts and Social Sciences

UNIVERSITY OF HOUSTON