

Department of Psychology Undergraduate Scholarships

Award amounts vary.

Factors that may be considered in the nomination process for the Laurie T. Callicutt Scholarship

The faculty of the Undergraduate Education Committee has the primary responsibility for the selection of candidates for this scholarship. Typically the criteria utilized for these decisions focus on the prior educational attainment of the applicant, demonstrated interest in and preparation for the course of study, and evidence of the applicant's ability to successfully matriculate in the program. This list is not exhaustive and programs are urged to utilize multiple relevant factors in making nomination decisions. Factors that may be considered during the nomination process are:

The scholarship is awarded to juniors for use in their senior year.

Eligibility requirements for application are:

- Student must be a currently enrolled full-time Psychology major.
- Student must have an overall GPA of 3.0 and a Psychology GPA of 3.5.

Selection criteria include:

- Faculty recommendations based on outstanding academic and research performance.
- Documented evidence of university and community service and leadership.
- Quality of "Senior Special Project" proposal.

Factors that may be considered in the nomination process for the Lee and Beverly Martin Scholarship

The faculty of the Undergraduate Education Committee has the primary responsibility for the selection of candidates for this scholarship. Typically the criteria utilized for these decisions focus on the prior educational attainment of the applicant, demonstrated interest in and preparation for the course of study, and evidence of the applicant's ability to successfully matriculate in the program. This list is not exhaustive and programs are urged to utilize multiple relevant factors in making nomination decisions. Factors that may be considered during the nomination process are:

Eligibility requirements for application are:

- Student must be a currently enrolled full-time declared Psychology major, in the 2nd to 4th year.

Selection criteria include:

- Preference will be given to applicants who are raised by a single working parent.
- If no applicant meets criterion 1, eligibility will be extended to applicants who have one parent disabled by war.
- If no applicant meets either criterion 1 or criterion 2, the scholarship will be awarded to the applicant who has the largest financial need, based on the applicant's FAFSA form.