

SPAN 4397 Latin American Journalism/UH Chronicles
Summer II - June 2013
M-T-W-TH-F 12:00-2:00pm
Prof. Anadeli Bencomo

Read some exemplary texts of Latin American journalism to discuss and analyze the organization, discourse, and style of the chronicle genre. As a final assignment students will write their own chronicle about UH today, taking into account their experiences at the university, and how they understand and promote the designation of UH as a Hispanic Serving Institution, and/or as a Tier-One research institution.

-This class is taught in Spanish-