FALL 2023

DR. ZELMA OYARVIDE TUTHILL | FACE-TO-FACE | TTH 10:00-11:30

This class is designed to provide an in-depth examination of the ways in which health inequality is reproduced and maintained and the framing of health differences as a matter of social justice. Given the recent legislation regarding reproductive rights, transgender health and immigration, it is important to understand how policies impact the health of communities.
