

GLBT 2360: Introduction to LGBT Studies

Dr. Guillermo de los Reyes

Class Time: Tuesday & Thursday: 2:30-4:00 p.m.

Course Description:

The Introduction to Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual, and Transgender studies is an interdisciplinary course that includes cultural, historical, literary, political and sociological, and other approaches in the field of GLBT Studies. It covers a broad range of topics in the field, including GLBT people's experiences, social roles, identity formation, and expressions across different cultures and societies, in the arts, religion, history, literature, politics, and the family. The purpose of the course is to introduce the students to key concepts, terms, and issues related to GLBT people, their history, role in contemporary issues, and identity development.

For more information contact: Dr. Guillermo de los Reyes, jdelosreyes@uh.edu