

Visiting Scholar

The Women's, Gender & Sexuality Studies Program at the University of Houston invites applications for a postdoctoral fellowship in Women's Studies, to begin in the Fall Semester 2014. Applicants may be working in any discipline, on a topic concerning women and/or gender. The recipient will teach one course per term, assist with some programming, and devote the rest of the time to research. The initial appointment will be for one year, with the possibility of renewal for a second. Salary will be $43,000 with full benefits. This may become a tenure-track position.

The applicant must hold a PhD degree at the time of the appointment. A letter of application, together with CV, writing sample and three letters of recommendation should be submitted on or before April 28, 2014, to Postdoc Search Committee, WGSS Program, University of Houston, Houston, TX 77204-3005.

The University of Houston is a Tier One research institution, with more than 40,000 students enrolled this year. Located in the center of Houston in a 550-acre park, the university provides an excellent environment for teaching and research, within a dynamic city.

The University of Houston is an Affirmative Action, Equal Opportunity employer. Minorities, women, veterans and persons with disabilities are encouraged to apply.