

LGBTQ 2024

history month

01-31

THE BANNER PROJECT!

oct. University of Houston Libraries-Special Collections

MD Anderson Library
24/7

The Banner Project banners, which showcase people, organizations, and critical moments in local LGBTQ+ History, will be displayed in MD Anderson Library for the entire month of October. Some of the banners are directly connected to collections within the LGBTQ+ History Research Collection, which are available for research.

11

COMING OUT OF THE ARCHIVES!

oct. University of Houston Libraries-Special Collections

MD Anderson Library, 1st floor
(across from the Circulation Desk)

This is a pop-up exhibit of archival materials documenting LGBTQ+ History that are preserved by UH Libraries Special Collections and available for research or to just explore.

10am-5pm

12

THE WOODLANDS PRIDE FESTIVAL

oct. The Woodlands PRIDE

Town Green Park 2099 Lake Robbins Drive The Woodlands TX 77380

Since 2018, The Woodlands Pride has hosted four festivals and welcomed more than 23,000 attendees to Town Green Park. This year promises to be the best yet! This event is free.

11am-5pm

19

KATY PRIDE CELEBRATION

oct. Katy Pride

First Christian Church Katy TX 22101 Morton Ranch Rd Katy, TX 77449 United States

Katy Pride, having seen the need for a safe and inclusive space in Katy/West Houston, launched their first Pride event last year. The organization is looking forward to hosting more than 1,000 attendees at their second annual event along with vendors and exhibitors. The festival will be totally free for the community, and they look forward to leaving a legacy of Pride in Katy.

11am-4pm

20

THIRD COAST PRIDEFEST PARADE

oct. Gay Galveston

Postoffice St Galveston, TX 77550

11am-4pm

The Third Coast PrideFest parade is returning for its second year! This is a celebration that brings people together to celebrate diversity and promote acceptance.

26

BE A PART OF HISTORY!

oct. University of Houston Libraries is NOT hosting this event. We are setting up tables with a pop-up exhibit of archival materials and offering a creative all-ages activity (see the description).

Discovery Green, 1500 McKinney St.

8:30-1:30am

University of Houston Libraries - Special Collections will be at the 3rd Annual Families with Pride event with a creative all-ages activity and a pop-up exhibit showcasing archival materials from the LGBTQ+ History Research Collection.

30

UH LGBTQ+ HISTORY AND ZINES!

oct. University of Houston Libraries-Special Collections

Student Center South Tables
(near the front entrance)

11am-2pm

This is a pop-up exhibit of archival items from the LGBTQ+ History Research Collection, Transgender and Queer Zine Collection, and University Archives. But we'll also be creating a collective zine onsite that connects us to UH LGBTQ+ History.

all students welcome

On-campus events are free to attend | Off-campus events across Houston may have a fee