Account Status: InActive persons

University Information Technology (UIT) is in the process of retiring the Mail.uh.edu system. According to our records, you are no longer identified as a current faculty, staff, or student at the University of Houston.

You will need to migrate your mail.uh.edu messages to your personal account that is not related to the university. Please consult the vendor of your current email service provider for instructions.

Please note that you must have moved your mail messages by November 15, 2012. Your Mail.uh.edu account will then be disabled.

To receive university related assistance, you may contact the University Information Technology (UIT) Support Center:

- Submit a Case: www.uh.edu/infotech/support-cases
- Chat with IT Support staff at www.uh.edu/infotech/livechat
- Call the IT Support Center at 713-743-1411
- Visit us at Philip Guthrie Hall (PGH) room 116
