

GROW AS A TEACHER & LEADER IN HEALTH CARE!

3 PROGRAMS TO ELEVATE YOUR EXPERTISE

The University of Houston College of Education offers a trio of opportunities for health care professionals seeking to enhance their skills in instruction, technology and leadership. Students learn from faculty at a Tier One research university with strong ties to the Texas Medical Center. And our alumni serve in a variety of influential roles, including academic deans, chief executives and program directors.

-  Ed.D. in Professional Leadership – Health Science Education
Hybrid online and face-to-face
-  M.Ed. in Curriculum and Instruction – Health Science Education
Online program
-  Certificate in Integrating Innovative Technologies in Health Science Education
Online program

APPLY NOW!
uh.edu/education/admissions

QUESTIONS?
Program Director Robert Hausmann, Ed.D.
rchausmann@uh.edu

PROGRAM PERKS

Designed for working professionals

Exclusive networking opportunities

Expert and supportive cross-disciplinary faculty

GRE not required

Tuition reimbursement through some employers

Degree Programs: Learn More!

Attend one of our virtual info sessions:

- ▶ Tuesday, April 1, 2025
 - ▶ Noon to 1 p.m. OR 7 to 8 p.m. CDT
- RSVP: tinyurl.com/UH-HealthSc-Apr25