

STUDENT BUSINESS SERVICES

How much do I owe for the semester?

You can review your tuition and fee bill through the Student Center in your myUH account. This amount may change as you make adjustments to your schedule.

When is my payment due?

All University billing due dates can be viewed here.

On January 12, 2021, this is what's due:

- Full payment of spring tuition and fees bill, or
- First installment of a payment plan (if you choose that option), or
- Selection of a deferment payment plan

Are there payment plan options for my bill?

Yes! We offer a variety of payment plans. Learn more about these options here.

How can I pay my bill?

Payments can be made via credit card, debit card, or e-check in Student Financials within your myUH account. No fee is charged for e-checks; see page 2 of our “how to” guide here.

I need to file an exemption waiver for tuition and fees.

Exemption waivers are available for qualified students who meet special circumstances. Examples include Hazlewood for veterans and their families, senior citizens, or students who are blind or deaf. For more information, visit our website.
