C.T. Bauer College of Business
Cash Handling Procedures
Fiscal Year 2025

I. Purpose and Overview

In accordance with MAPP 05.01.01, Cash Handling, all cash transactions involving the University, its colleges, or any departments are subject to all applicable state laws and regulations and University policies and procedures, including University of Houston System Administrative Memoranda (SAMs) 03.A.07, – Petty Cash Procedures, 08.A.03 – Gift Acceptance, and 03.F.04 – Cash Handling. All University employees have a fiduciary responsibility to the University to handle cash properly. Procedures for the handling of cash receipts are designed to provide accountability for monies received in accordance with accepted standards of internal controls. All employees of the College/ Division are responsible for complying with the policies and procedures described below.

This document establishes policies and procedures for handling all cash activities at the University of Houston Bauer College Of Business, including cash acceptance, the deposit of cash, and cash fund maintenance.

II. Definition of Cash

Cash is U.S. currency (dollars and coins); personal, business, bank, and cashier's checks; money orders; travelers' checks; or foreign drafts (but not foreign currency).

III. Policy Statement

Employees handling cash are subject to all provisions outlined herein based on MAPP 05.01.01 – Cash Handling. University positions with cash handling or fund custodial responsibilities are designated as security sensitive.

Cash is not to be accepted or disbursed by University employees unless that employee has been authorized by the College/Division Business Administrator of Bauer College to handle cash for a specified purpose. All employees authorized to handle cash must be certified annually. This certification is done by completing the online training for Cash Handling.

Employees can register for this course at the following website, <http://www.uh.edu/adminservices/training/financeonline.htm>.

When a University employee receives cash, it is to be deposited promptly into the appropriate authorized University cost center. Retention of cash received from outside sources for use as petty cash for making change is prohibited. Use of University cash funds or cash receipts for cashing checks is prohibited.

Procedures for the handling of cash receipts are designed to provide accountability for monies received in accordance with accepted standards of internal controls. All employees of the College/Division are responsible for complying with the policies and procedures described herein. Failure to adhere to these policies and procedures may result in disciplinary action being taken against the employee.

All employees have an obligation to report any suspected theft, fraud, embezzlement, or any other irregularity causing a loss of cash in accordance with SAM 01.C.04, Reporting/Investigating Fraudulent Acts. Employees who are aware of criminal activity and fail to report such may be subject to disciplinary action. Employees are required to cooperate with any police or audit investigation, and they may be requested to keep their knowledge of the investigation confidential.

IV. Receiving Cash

All monies are routed to the appropriate person in the BCB Business Dean's Office, including donations, gifts, and transfers from COB Foundation, UH Foundations or other payments. A purpose, a cost center and account code to be credited must be noted for the deposit from the department to the business office. All employees receiving monies will strictly adhere to the University of Houston Policy and Procedures - MAPP 5.01.01 and must maintain a log of name, customer name, purpose, payment method (check, cash, or credit card), amount received and cost center name of all cash received.

All employees accepting cash (currency, money orders, checks, and credit / debit cards) must be authorized to do so.

All employees authorized to handle credit card transactions shall complete required online credit card training annually. All employees authorized to handle cash, including currency, money orders, and checks, shall complete required online cash handling training and certification annually.

- vi. Slide the checks up to the line mark in the scanner.
- vii. Start the scanning process and the remote deposit will capture each item and populate a count and an amount, which is the total number of checks scanned and the total dollar amount of checks scanned.

Gifts

- a. Endowed gifts received by the college/ department are forwarded to Donor & Alumni Records with a Gift Transmittal Form (GTF) signed by the certifying signature, cost center, and other documentation within one working day of receipt.
- b. Non-endowed gifts are processed through the remote deposit scanner and a copy is sent to Donor & Alumni Records at gifts1@uh.edu with a Gift Transmittal Form (GTF) signed by the certifying signature, cost center, and other documentation within one working day of receipt.
- c. Gift Transmittal Forms are found at <http://www.uh.edu/finance/pages/forms.htm>.

VI. Retaining Deposit Documents

- a. Bauer College Dean's Office retains copies of reconciled cash register activity logs, checks, the Deposit Bag Confirmation Strip, credit card documentation, and individual invoices or receipts with departmental records for six months for audit purposes.
- b. Departmental Cost Center transactions are verified monthly by the Financial Analyst II. All discrepancies are cleared when identified in accordance to the policy.

VII. Other Cash Procedures

- a. Money that is found is turned over to UH DPS.
- b. Unidentified deposits (those where the purpose and recipient of the payment cannot be identified, including gifts) are referred to the Treasurer's Office for research and deposit to the University's depository institution and recording in the unidentified receipts cost center. The Treasurer's Office and the submitting department will research the source of funds to determine the appropriate cost center for the ultimate receipt of funds.

VIII. Petty Cash and Change Funds

- a. The Bauer College does not have a Petty Cash and Change Fund

The C. T. Bauer College has centralized most of the cash handling for the College. There are some areas for example Graduate and Professional Programs and Rockwell Career Center that process credit cards payments for their area; however the cash handling procedures are the same. The above procedures apply to all departments who handle cash funds and the cash handling policy and procedure statement applies to all units within the Bauer College of Business.
