DESK AND DERRICK CLUB OF DALLAS
SCHOLARSHIPS FOR
JAN-2008 TO MAY-2009 SCHOOL YEAR

The Desk and Derrick Club of Dallas offers scholarships to outstanding college students planning a career in the Petroleum, Energy and Allied Industries. The award is flexible and depends on the qualifications and needs of each student. Awards are available to both graduate and undergraduate students.

Applicants will be judged on the following general qualifications:

- Home residence – Native of Dallas/Fort Worth Metroplex.
- Studies must be in a field relating to the petroleum, energy or allied industries.
- The student must show financial need to continue his/her education.
- An overall GPA of at least 3.00 out of 4.00 (An official transcript is required to confirm their GPA. If the student is a freshman, the committee will need a copy of their high school transcript.)

Applicants should compose a letter to the committee chairman outlining their qualifications and goals. To receive consideration, the following items must accompany the letter and reach the committee chairman postmarked by July 15, 2008.

- The Desk & Derrick Scholarship application
- An official college transcript
- A copy of their current college tuition invoice and book receipts

Eligible students may be interviewed by phone in August 2008, and the scholarship committee will select the award recipients by October 1, 2008 and notifications will be made by November 1, 2008.
