

Bolivar M. "Bo" Fraga

Bio

Bolivar M. "Bo" Fraga is a native Houstonian and product of Houston Independent School District. He is a graduate of the United States Air Force Academy, where he earned a Bachelor of Science in History and was commissioned a 2nd Lieutenant in the Air Force. He served as an Intelligence Officer supporting world-wide air mobility missions, to include "Operation Enduring Freedom" missions following 9/11. As part of his active duty service, he earned a Master of Arts in Latin American Studies at the University of Florida. Following his military commitment, Bolivar earned a Master of Arts in Pastoral Studies from Aquinas Institute of Theology and a Master in Social Work from Saint Louis University. Since 2009, he has worked for Neighborhood Centers Inc., the Houston region's largest community development organization, where he is currently the Community Engagement Developer. In line with his professional work, Bolivar is a Board Member of the following organizations: Buffalo Bayou Partnership, Houston A+ Challenge, the Mickey Leland Kibbutzim Internship Program, the Red Cross, and Tax Increment Reinvestment Zone (TIRZ) #23.