Select the tabs below to review and update the employee's Goals, Responsibilities, and Competencies for the evaluation period. The Established Criteria step must be complete by the Due Date indicated. Please remember the following related to the Established Criteria phase:

1. Employees should enter their preferred Goals during the Establish Criteria step through Employee Self Service. Managers should review the Goals and make appropriate updates prior to finalizing.
2. Enter appropriate Competencies, Customer Service items, and update Responsibilities.
3. Review the performance criteria with the employee.
4. Once the performance criteria is complete, select the Approve button to complete this step.
From here, as the manager, you can select to either add your own goal, copy a goal from your own document or copy a goal from another one of your employee’s documents. Please note that in order to copy a goal from another evaluation (yours or another employee), the goals must have already been set.

Responsibilities Section

A list of your employee’s responsibilities is displayed in Section 3 (or Section 2 if they had no Managerial Responsibilities). These responsibilities are pulled directly from your employee’s job description. These duties are built into the document so there is no option to edit them, only delete them.

To see the description under each of these duties select Expand.

- If you want to combine some of these duties into one, you will need to add a new responsibility and delete the ones you’re combining.
- If some of the duties listed are repetitive or not applicable to this particular employee and you want to remove some of them, you certainly can. Please keep in mind that if you’re deleting a majority of the duties because they aren’t applicable, it’s possible that your employee is in the incorrect job. You will need to reach out to Compensation if that is the case to discuss options.

Define Criteria - Update and Approve

A responsibility is a task, action, or obligation that is part of your specific position or assignment and most often has a frequency and quality associated with it. This section of the evaluation comes directly from the job description. If the job duties in this section have changed, or are not specific enough, managers should edit by adding and deleting criteria to fit the employee’s actual job duties. Ideally employees should be evaluated on 4-6 responsibilities.

Now that you’ve set criteria for your employee you’re ready to finalize it. Before finalizing, go through each section to ensure that you have set an item for everything.

This is imperative as you’ll have to assign ratings to each of these sections. If there is nothing established in one of the sections, there is nothing to evaluate your employee on and therefore nothing to rate. In order to finalize the evaluation and close it out you MUST rate every section in the document.

Each section of the document has Section Summaries that include a Section Weight Percentage. These percentages are what determine the overall ePerformance rating for your employee. Each section has a minimum weight that must be assigned, but you as the Manager can determine how much value a section should have. (Example: You want Responsibilities to hold more value than the employees Goals).

- Minimum Section Weights (section screen shots included on pages directly following step by step instructions)
  - Goals – 40%
  - Managerial Responsibilities – 5% (N/A for employees in Non-Manager roles)
  - Responsibilities – 30%
  - Competencies – 5%
  - Customer Service – 5%

The total overall weight for the document MUST equal 100%. The minimum section weights only account for 80% - 85% (depending on if the document has the additional Managerial Responsibilities section), so as the Manager you will have to assign an additional 15% - 20% weight to the sections. You can assign the entire percentage to one section or you can split it up over as many sections as you want. The system will NOT let you finalize the criteria until the overall weight equals 100%.
CHANGING SECTION WEIGHTS

Under Goals Tab, scroll down to the Goals Summary Section and update the Section Weight to the percentage you want (can’t be less than 40%).

    - Section Weight: 10% (not less than 5%)
Once you’ve updated all section weights, you’re ready to finalize your criteria. Before finalizing, take one final look at your employees document to ensure there are no additional changes you want to make.

To finalize the criteria, select Save on the top right hand of the document.
Once you’ve selected Save, select Approve. If all of your section weights don’t total up to 100%, you’ll receive an error message indicating there was a problem completing your request. The error message also includes how much % needs to be adjusted.

Once you’ve selected Save, select Approve. If all of your section weights total up to 100% you’ll be re-directed to a confirm request page to confirm you want to approve your established criteria. Select Confirm.

Once confirmed, you’ll be re-directed to a confirmation page that you’ve successfully finalized your employee’s criteria. Select Return to Current Documents to return back to your employee ePerformance queue.

Section 1 - Employee Goals

Employee goals should be SMART goal(s). Goals should be: Specific, Measurable, Achievable, Realistic, and Time Sensitive. Most employees have new goals each year. Employees and managers should work together to define project goals, service or team goals, or individual performance improvement goals.

Enter 2-5 goals for the performance period. Managers will review all goals and determine which criteria will be included in the final evaluation. Click the Add Goal button. Managers can create a new goal, or copy goals from an existing evaluation.

RESPONSIBILITIES SECTIONS:

• Managerial Responsibilities – Minimum 5% (Section Weight kept at 5%)

Managerial Responsibilities

A manager responsibility is a task, action, or obligation that is a part of a management position or assignment. This section should contain leadership and managerial responsibilities such as sets objectives, organizes, motivates and communicates, measures, and develops employees.

Enter 2-4 manager responsibilities for the performance period. Click the Add Item button. Managers can create a new responsibility, or copy responsibilities from an existing evaluation.

Responsibilities

A responsibility is a task, action, or obligation that is part of your specific position or assignment and most often has a frequency and quality associated with it. This section of the evaluation covers directly from the job description. If the job duties in this section have changed, or are not specific enough, managers should edit by adding and deleting criteria to fit the employee’s actual job duties.

Ideally employees should be evaluated on 4-6 responsibilities.

COMPETENCIES SECTIONS:

- Competencies – Minimum 5% (Section Weight kept at 5%)

Section 4 - Competencies

A competency is the specific behavior, knowledge, and motivation that an employee must demonstrate in order to be effective in a given job or role. A competency is often described as “how” one does a job, as opposed to “what” someone does, although there may be some overlap.

Employees should have 2-4 competencies listed on the performance evaluation. Click the Add Competency button. Managers can select from a list of pre-defined competencies or copy from an existing evaluation.
