

Texas Public Education Grant (TPEG)

Download Application: TPEG Application

The purpose of the Texas Public Education Grant (TPEG) is to assist students with demonstrated financial needs. Although nonimmigrant students paying the resident tuition rate may apply, primary consideration will be given to those students paying the non-resident tuition rate because of the limited amount of money available. The grant will not provide the resident tuition rate. Applications must be submitted to ISSSO no later than Friday, April 14, 2023 at 5pm.

What are the Minimum Eligibility Requirements?

Applicants must:

1. Complete a minimum of 12 credit hours (9 hours for graduate students) for the Fall 2022 semester at UH. Concurrent enrollment or excused drops do not count toward full-time hours for TPEG purposes.
2. Complete a minimum of 12 credit hours (9 hours for graduate students) during the current Spring semester. Concurrent enrollment or excused drops do not count toward full-time hours for TPEG purposes.
3. Take a minimum of 12 credit hours (9 hours for graduate students) each main semester at UH for following academic year.
4. Have nonimmigrant status in the U.S. (e.g., F-1, J-1, J-2, H-4, A-1, L-2, etc.).
5. Be in good academic standing (i.e., not on probation or suspension).
6. Prove financial need.

What Steps Do I Follow?

Download the TPEG application materials.

Complete the TPEG application materials and submit it with the requested documentation to ISSSO, Student Center North, Room 203.

When Do I Submit My Application?

The deadline for submission of the current TPEG application is Friday, April 14, 2023 at 5 pm.

Where Do I Submit My Application?

Submit your application and attachments to the International Student & Scholar Services Office, Student Center North, Room 203.

Can I submit the application online?

No, you must submit the application in paper.

When Will I Know If I Have Received a Grant?

Recipients of the TPEG will hear from the Scholarships and Financial Aid Office in May. ISSSO will not have information regarding award notifications.

In order to receive the TPEG, recipients must accept their award in your myUH self-service account at accessuh.uh.edu. Click on the Financial Aid tile and navigate to the View Financial Aid menu. Visit the Summary page to click on the aid description and learn more about your offer. You may accept the funds that are offered to you via the Accept/Decline page.