

Spanish Immersion on a Budget! Summer, Semester and Short Programs 2017-2018

Kukulcan Educational Spanish Community offers a unique intensive language and cultural learning experience in Cuernavaca, Mexico. Kukulcan offers its classes at a local K-12 school (Colegio Cuernavaca), offering program participants the opportunity to interact with over 400 Mexican students daily. Courses are offered at the beginning (1000), intermediate (2000), & advanced levels (3000). A student can study in the fall, winter or summer semester; courses begin every other Monday. Program length varies from three weeks to a full semester. Students must work with UH Learning Abroad to complete required paperwork, obtain international medical and emergency insurance and course equivalency documents.

PROGRAM COSTS & TRANSFER OF CREDITS:

All credits from courses listed below are accepted by UH and are factored into the GPA. A grade of "C-" or better is required to pass and students must attend 90% of classes. Students must work with UH Learning Abroad and the Department of Hispanic Studies in advance of the program for transfer of credits.
