BE PART OF OUR LEGACY

Tilman J. Fertitta Family College of Medicine

UNIVERSITY OF HOUSTON

PRECEPTOR BENEFITS

- University of Houston Voluntary Clinical Faculty Appointment Status
- Access to UH Medical Library resources
- Grand Rounds, lectures and Continuing Medical Education
- Free subscription to TeachingPhysician.org
- Potential for MOC Credit for teaching (ABFM)
- Unique faculty development opportunities
- Students can assist/participate in QI or research activities

PRECEPTOR EXPECTATIONS

- Allow students to perform assigned clinical tasks, including history taking and physical examination
- Allow for student involvement in patient care
- Observe, supervise and provide feedback for students
- Complete student performance evaluations
- Provide College of Medicine leadership with feedback for ways to improve the rotation

PRECEPTING OPPORTUNITIES	WEEKLY COMMITMENT	ANNUAL COMMITMENT
Longitudinal Primary Care (LPC)
Family Medicine, General Internal Medicine & Geriatrics	Half-day per week, supervising 1st & 2nd year medical students	Over the span of 18 months (August – March of each academic year)
Longitudinal Integrated Clerkship (LIC)
Outpatient: Internal Medicine, Family Medicine, Surgery, Pediatrics, Psychiatry & OBGYN	POP: Monday - Friday supervising 2nd and 3rd year students for 2 weeks at a time; FIS: 1 day per week	March - December
Inpatient: Internal Medicine, Surgery, Pediatrics, Psychiatry & OBGYN	6 days per week, 4-6 week blocks	March - December
Advanced Clerkship & Electives (ACE)
Advanced Clerkship: Intensive Care, Emergency Medicine, Sub-Internship & Rural Health	Every day, supervising 3rd & 4th year medical students	4-week blocks
Electives: All clinical specialties	Every day, supervising 3rd & 4th year medical students	4-week blocks

STUDENT EXPECTATIONS

- Perform H&P, SOAP notes, progress notes, and patient presentations
- Assist with procedures
- Participate in patient care activities to facilitate learning
- Learn from and be a part of the interprofessional care team
- Be prompt, professional, respectful, and eager to learn

Join us as we train the next generation of medical professionals!

Tilman J. Fertitta Family College of Medicine

UNIVERSITY OF HOUSTON

Email: COMPRE@central.uh.edu

WEB: uh.edu/medicine