

UNIVERSITY of HOUSTON
FACULTY EXPERT

AVAILABLE LIVE VIA DIGITAL STUDIO

Cybersecurity

CHRIS BRONK

Assistant Professor, Computer and Information Systems

Associate Director, Center for Information Security
Research and Education
Fmr. Foreign Service Advisor, U.S. Dept. of State

EXPERTISE

- Cyber Geopolitics
- Intelligence Studies
- Organizational Innovation
- Software Development

"If I compromise their operations, I can see all the buyers and sellers. If I can persistently be in their network I can issue fake transactions." -Bronk in New York Times article about how cyberattack showed vulnerability of gas pipeline network

SELECT RESEARCH

- "Encounter Battle: Engaging ISIS in Cyberspace," Cyber Defense Review 2 (co-authored)
- "Repression, Education and Politically Motivated Denial of Service Attacks," Journal of Global Security Studies (co-authored)
- "Cyber Threat: The Rise of Information in Geopolitics in U.S. National Security" (published book)

CREDENTIALS

- B.S., History, University of Wisconsin-Madison
- M.A., Political Science, Syracuse University
- Ph.D., Political Science, Syracuse University
- Coursework in International Politics and History, Oxford University
- Coursework in Asian Studies and Korean, Yonsei University, South Korea

UH MEDIA RELATIONS CONTACT

Sara Tubbs 713-743-4248, sstubbs2@uh.edu