

Severe Economic Hardship Work Authorization

BRIEF DESCRIPTION: This program provides off-campus employment authorization for F-1 students who face severe economic hardship due to changes in their circumstances that could not be controlled or predicted. During fall and spring semesters, you are limited to part-time employment (a maximum of 20 hours per week) and must maintain a full course of study. You can work full-time during the summer or officially recognized school breaks.

ELIGIBILITY: You must have completed two main semesters (fall and spring; an academic year) to be eligible to apply for this program. You must also document and prove that your financial need could not have been predicted and that it was not under your control. This may include "loss of financial aid or on-campus employment without fault on the part of the student (e.g. due to loss of funding), substantial fluctuations in the value of currency or exchange rate, inordinate increases in tuition and/or living costs, unexpected changes in the financial condition of the student's source of support, medical bills, or other substantial and unexpected expenses."

PREPARATION CHECKLIST

- Obtain a letter with a notarized signature from your financial sponsor explaining the circumstances that were beyond his or her ability to control or predict that justify why he or she can no longer fully support you.
- Write a letter to the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services explaining your financial need and how the economic hardship you are experiencing is due to circumstances that were beyond your ability to control or predict.
- Gather supporting documentation (e.g. newspaper articles about the financial problems in your home country, proof of changes in the currency exchange rate, articles about natural disasters, medical bills, evidence of illness or death of sponsor, etc.). Note: Proving circumstances beyond your ability to predict or control is the key to being approved by Department of Homeland Security.
- Complete the I-765 application form. Question 16 should be coded (c) (3) (iii). This form is either attached or can be downloaded at <http://www.uscis.gov/files/form/i-765.pdf> (you only need to print page 10).
- Obtain two "passport-type" photographs (e.g. Head and shoulders looking straight ahead). The Creation Station in the University Center Underground will do the photos correctly for ~$10.
