FY2018 One Time Request – CMA Travel

Each year, the College Media Association hosts a conference for all member organizations. The conference holds lectures, workshops, and seminars in improving media organizations. Next year, the conference will be held in Dallas, and CoogTV would like to send three officers to learn from others in the field to better connect with the campus and improve skills both technical and conceptual.

This will better the quality of content on CoogTV and will generate new ideas for interacting with the community by allowing student leaders to learn from other universities and benchmark their success in comparison with other student media models.
