African American/Black Student Support Act

Whereas, Black History Month is in February.

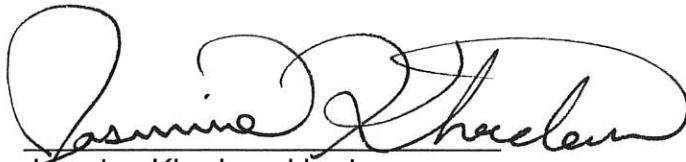

Whereas, The University of Houston has been honored in many ways for its commitment to diversity;

Whereas, as of the fall semester of 2021, African American students make up 10.3% of students at the University of Houston;

Whereas, it may be difficult for Black or African American students to locate the plethora of resources and organizations available to them.

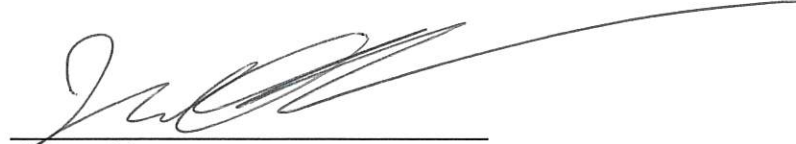

Therefore, be it enacted by the Student Government Association of the University of Houston:

That the Student Government Association will create and update semesterly a page of resources pertinent to African American/Black students at the University of Houston.
