

MH-RITES Center Research Fellow

Pedro Isnardo de La Cruz Lugardo, Ph.D., Director of Research, Escuela Nacional de Trabajo Social (ENTS), Universidad Nacional Autonoma de Mexico (UNAM)

Email: unam.pedroisnardo@gmail.com

Pedro Isnardo De la Cruz Lugardo, PhD is the Research Coordinator of the ENTS in which he supervises the production of knowledge and training in Social Work. He is the Coordinator of a doctoral group in the evaluation of public policies in the Center for Research in Sciences and Humanities of the UNAM (CEIICH). His research interests are focused on the evaluation of public policies, social community impact of public policies, migration, public health, security and social prevention of violence, design of institutional strategies in social policy. His vision and research focus is on changing the way mental health is treated in Mexico, and incorporating mental health into general health. The ENTS can promote projects with the National Institute of Neurology where we have a Sociomedical Research Laboratory and the University of Houston.