

Associate Dean for Academic Affairs and Faculty Development
Tenure Faculty Opening
Fall 2011

The University at Buffalo is a Carnegie Foundation Research University and a member of the prestigious American Association of Universities. Housed at the University at Buffalo are the nationally known UB Earthquake Center, the Research Institute on Addictions, and the newly established Bioinformatics Center. As an urban public research university, The University at Buffalo is the premier institution in the State University of New York system.

The School of Social Work enrolls over 500 students and offers an MSW degree, a PhD degree and BA/MSW, JD/MSW, MBA/MSW and MPH/MSW combined programs. The Buffalo Center for Social Research which is housed within the School of Social Work provides faculty support in pursuing external funding. Faculty have established strong records of community-based and interdisciplinary research and scholarship in gerontology, child welfare, substance abuse, trauma, health and mental health services, and multicultural social work.

Associate or Full

We are searching for a colleague to join our faculty at the associate or full level in a key leadership role as Associate Dean for Academic Affairs and Faculty Development. This position involves oversight of school-wide academic policy and faculty retention and promotion processes. The successful candidate for this tenured position will have an MSW and a doctorate in Social Work or a related discipline. Applicants are expected to have funded research and a scholarly record appropriate to their rank of Associate or Full Professor. Social Work education administrative experience preferred.

We welcome nominations for this critical leadership position within our School. Applicants are required to complete online applications at <http://www.ubjobs.buffalo.edu>. Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled.

For further information please contact:

Catherine N. Dulmus, Ph.D.
Recruitment Committee Chair
716-645-1253
cdulmus@buffalo.edu

To learn more about us, please visit our website at: www.socialwork.buffalo.edu