

Full time Faculty Position/Social Work

Keuka College seeks applicants for a full time, 10-month tenure-track teaching position at the Assistant Professor rank in its undergraduate social work program. The start date is August 16, 2011 (pending budget approval).

Keuka is a small private, independent, liberal-arts based institution located in the picturesque Finger Lakes region of central New York. The college is located in a rural area but enjoys excellent community support. Current full time enrollment is approximately 1000 students. The institution is a pioneer in experiential education, and our Field Period program remains a centerpiece of the Keuka educational experience.

Minimum qualifications include:

- An MSW degree, Ph.D. preferred, and post-secondary teaching experience, preferably a BSW program.
- Ability to teach a variety of social work courses to include: policy, practice, and HBSE.
- A commitment to excellence in teaching, advising, and to student development
- An understanding of and commitment to the epistemology, philosophy, and practice of experiential education
- The ability to work in a collegial fashion with social work faculty and faculty outside the program
- An interest in creative program development
- A willingness to work with colleagues and the Admissions staff to increase enrollment of freshman and transfer students.

The BSW program is accredited by CSWE and growing. Rank, salary, and benefits are commensurate with experience. Interested candidates should submit a letter of interest, updated curriculum vitae or resume, and transcripts of all academic work (unofficial copies acceptable at this time) to the office of Human Resources, Keuka College, 141 Central Ave., Keuka Park, NY 14478, or email jfolts@keuka.edu. Application materials must include names, addresses, and phone numbers of three current professional references. Keuka College is an Equal Opportunity Employer committed to a diverse and inclusive workforce. AA/EOE.
