

Southern Connecticut State University

Tenure-Track Faculty Position Announcement

Department: Social Work

Rank: Associate Professor/Professor

Specialization(s): Marriage and Family Therapy

Brief Description of Duties/Responsibilities:

Successful candidate will be expected to teach four courses per semester. These courses include but are not limited to systemic theories, assessment, couples therapy, and practicum and internship supervision. The candidate may also be expected to provide on-site supervision. All faculty share student advising and committee assignments.

Required Qualifications:

Candidates must have earned doctorate in Marriage and Family Therapy or related field by time of appointment. Candidates should demonstrate evidence of experience as a marriage and family therapist.

Preferred Qualifications:

Evidence of teaching at the university – level in a graduate program is highly desirable. Candidates must also provide evidence of ability to engage in meaningful scholarship/creative activity, leading to presentations at professional meetings and publications in peer-reviewed journals in the discipline, with a demonstrated record of scholarship/creative activity. Clinical membership in AAMFT and AAMFT Approved Supervisor status or eligibility are preferred.

Application Process:

Please submit letter of interest, current curriculum vita, and three letters of recommendation to: Dr. Suzy Carroll, Chair of the Search Committee, Davis Hall 020, 501 Crescent Street, Southern Connecticut State University, New Haven, CT 06515. If you choose to use email, send to Dr. Carroll @ carrolls1@southernct.edu

In order for your application to be given full consideration, all materials must be received by April 29, 2011. The position will remain open until filled.

Standard Affirmative Action Statement (Language to be determined by Office of Equity and Diversity).