

THE SCHOOL OF SOCIAL WORK, UNIVERSITY OF PITTSBURGH
ANNOUNCES THE SEARCH FOR THE DAVID E. EPPERSON CHAIR

The University of Pittsburgh School of Social Work is seeking applications for the endowed David E. Epperson Chair, named in honor of Dr. David E. Epperson, who served as Dean of the School of Social Work from 1972-2001.

It is expected that the Epperson Professor will be appointed with the rank of Professor. Applicants must have a distinguished scholarly record, a proven expertise in procuring external funding in health, and the ability to teach at all program levels. In addition, the candidate is expected to mentor students and faculty, as well as participate in service opportunities within the profession, school, and university.

Senior faculty with a proven record of research, teaching, and service are encouraged to apply. MSW degree preferred; Ph.D. in social work related field required.

Prospective candidates may be nominated or individuals may submit a letter of application along with a curriculum vitae. Applications should be sent to:

Daniel Rosen, Ph.D.
Chair, Search Committee
University of Pittsburgh
School of Social Work
2009 Cathedral of Learning
Pittsburgh, PA 15260
Email: mlc85@pitt.edu

The position will remain open until filled, although candidates are encouraged to submit their applications by December 31, 2011.

The University of Pittsburgh is an Equal Opportunity, Affirmative Action employer and strongly encourages women and minority candidates to apply.