

Raise a Champion!

Swim Mom Debbie Phelps Promotes Parent Involvement

Join the Cooperative for After-School Enrichment (CASE) and Debbie Phelps, mother of Olympian Michael Phelps, on National Parental Involvement Day

Thursday, Nov. 15, 2012
11 a.m.-2 p.m.

Houston Garden Center (inside Hermann Park)
1500 Hermann Circle Drive
Houston, TX 77030

Program

11 a.m. - noon

Hear Debbie Phelps' life story, rich with struggle, humor, hope, advice and passion.

Lunch (noon-1 p.m.)

Gain valuable resources from our Family Engagement Resource Fair.

1-2 p.m.

Contribute questions for a panel discussion on successful parenting with Phelps and local leaders who balance work and parenting responsibilities. Panel discussion moderator is

KHOU-TV News

Anchor

Shern-Min Chow.

Cost

$35.00 (includes lunch)

Register

<http://wms.hcde-texas.org>
Workshop No. 17-03907

Call

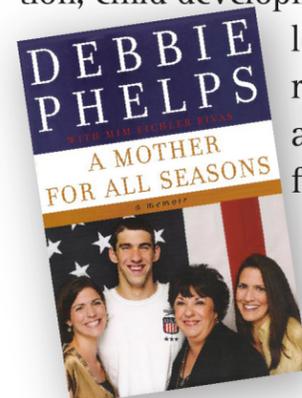

713-696-1360

Email

mglover@hcde-texas.org

Debbie Phelps is widely recognized as an innovative, energetic and talented leader. With 30-years as a master teacher and administrator, this mother and grandmother became the director of the Education Foundation of the Baltimore County Public Schools. A highly sought after motivational speaker and recent author, Phelps addresses a range of topics related to education, child development and life lessons. She recently authored her first book: A Mother for All Seasons.

About the Cooperative for After-School Enrichment, or CASE: CASE provides and supports after-school programs in 100 after-school sites in Harris County for over 12,000 students in elementary through high school in greater Harris County. Formed in 1999 by Harris County Department of Education, the CASE vision is to ensure that every child in Harris County has access to a quality after-school program. Access www.afterschoolzone.org for more information.

This event is funded in part through the generosity of Houston Endowment Inc.