Tonya M. Frazier, RN, BSN, CCTC
Living Donor Kidney Transplant Coordinator
UCLA Kidney & Pancreas Transplant Program

Independent Living Donor Advocate Network (ILDAN) is an online networking community of social workers, psychologists, physicians, nurses and clergy who work as independent living donor advocates. ILDAN offers 24/7 virtual resources that provide professional development, solutions, collaboration and peer support through:

- Live Webinars
- Recorded Webinars
- Videos of instruction

Now ILDAN webinars can be viewed from most mobile devices with GoToMeeting Apple app or GoToMeeting Google Play app

The Living Bank is co-providing this webinar with Terri Goodman & Associates.

Continuing Education Credits

The resources provided are in compliance with the Center for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS) as it relates to services provided for living donors and the United Network for Organ Sharing (UNOS) and the Organ Procurement and Transplantation Network (OPTN) guidelines.

Nursing contact hours provided by Terri Goodman and Associates are valid nationwide and accepted by nursing professional organizations in many foreign countries. One contact hour of continuing education credit will be awarded to nurses upon completion of the live webinar and evaluation.

Professional Counselors and Social Workers can earn one contact hour of continuing education credit from the Texas State Board of Examiners of Professional Counselors and the Texas State Board of Social Work Examiners, respectively, by completing either the live or recorded webinar. The ILDAN Webinar program is also approved by the National Association of Social Workers (Approval #886638759-2175) for 1 Social Work continuing education contact hour per webinar.

Certificates of completion will automatically populate and can be found in the My courses tab under the completed webinar.

ILDAN has been generously funded by:

- The George & Mary Josephine Hamman Foundation
- The Brown Foundation
