

Texas Family Engagement Conference 2015

BUILDING HISPANIC AND AFRICAN-AMERICAN ENGAGEMENT

Boykin

Torres

Presenters Include:

Dr. Wade Boykin, Howard University; Dr. Luis Torres, University of Houston; Dr. Scott Van Beck, Houston A+ Challenge; Robert Rivera, FACE Specialists; Elena Marks, Episcopal Health Foundation; Lisa Hall, Houston Endowment; Reverend Pedro Lopez, St. Peter Episcopal Church; Patrick Patterson, ICF International; Dr. Robert Austin, RJ Austin Consulting; and others.

Conference Attendees Should Expect:

1. To learn culturally competent engagement strategies for Hispanic and African-American families
2. To see examples of effective engagement in various industries and populations
3. To develop engagement plans relevant to your context

Session Topics Include (Short List):

1. Till, Weed, and Feed: How to Start and Maintain an Engagement Effort
2. Reaping the Promise that Awaits: Monitoring Outcomes that Matter
3. A Guiding Philosophy: Understanding the Levels of Engagement
4. Are you Ready? How to Assess your Organization's Readiness to Engage
5. Similar or Different? Engagement Differences between African-American and Hispanic Communities
6. Engaging Men of Color: Is it Really Possible?

2014 Conference Photos

Click Here to Register

$129 if before January 21st... $159 after.

University of Houston

4100 University Drive | Houston | TX | 77004

Feb. 4th 8a-4p | Feb. 5th 8a-12p

St. James Lutheran Church

UNIVERSITY of HOUSTON
GRADUATE COLLEGE of SOCIAL WORK

