

“Policy Insider Series”

A four-part series of conversations on policy, advocacy, and politics

Conversations with local advocates and lobbyists will be held in Room 231 of the Graduate College of Social Work Building on the following Tuesdays, from 11:30-1:00:

October 9, 2012:

Exploring impacts of the 2012 federal and state elections on healthcare policy

Freddy Warner, Systems Executive, Public Policy & Government Relations

Memorial Hermann Healthcare System

November 13, 2012:

Being an effective advocate during the 2013 Texas legislative session

Katherine Barillas, Ph.D., Director of Child Welfare Policy & Governmental Relations

One Voice Texas

February 12, 2013:

Key social welfare issues in the 2013 Texas legislative session and tips for getting involved in the process

To Be Announced

April 16, 2013:

The 2013 Texas legislative session: Where do key social welfare bills stand and what happens after Sine Die?

To Be Announced

For more information, please contact:

Dr. Suzanne Pritzker, Assistant Professor, UH Graduate College of Social Work: spritzker@uh.edu

Dr. Katherine Barillas, Director of Child Welfare Policy and Governmental Relations, One Voice Texas:

KBarillas@Onevoicetexas.org