

Augsburg College
Assistant Professor of Social Work
Two One-Year Faculty Positions

The Augsburg College Social Work Department invites applications for two one-year limited term Assistant Professor positions to begin September 1, 2012. We are a dynamic and innovative department whose mission is “to develop social work professionals for practice that promotes social justice and empowerment.”

The primary responsibility for these positions is classroom teaching. Preferred candidates will have experience and expertise that prepares them to teach in either of our MSW concentration areas: Multicultural Clinical Practice (MCCP) or Program Development, Policy, and Administration (PDPA). Candidates may be asked to teach generalist courses in both the Bachelor of Social Work and Master of Social Work programs. Class schedules may include weekdays, weekends or evenings. MSW concentration courses are taught on the weekend only.

Requirements include an MSW, a minimum of two years post-MSW practice experience, and demonstrated teaching excellence at the college level. Candidates with the PhD degree and/or coursework are encouraged to apply. It is expected that the successful candidate will obtain social work licensure in Minnesota.

Augsburg College, a private co-educational college of the liberal and professional arts and sciences, is affiliated with the Evangelical Lutheran Church of America, and offers an education grounded in Christian values, a diverse campus community, and an exciting metropolitan setting in the heart of the Twin Cities in Minnesota. Augsburg is committed to the education of students in a global perspective.

To apply, submit cover letter, CV, three letters of professional reference and evidence of teaching excellence online at: <http://www.augsburg.edu/hr/> or send a hard copy to Augsburg College, 2211 Riverside Avenue, CB 136, Minneapolis, MN 55454, Attn.: Judi Green. Application review will begin May 8, 2012; position open until filled.
