

OHIO
UNIVERSITY

Lancaster Campus | Pickerington Center

Ohio University Lancaster seeks a Lecturer and Field Coordinator of Social Work (9-month, renewable non-tenure track position) to begin January 2, 2015, to teach undergraduate Social Work courses in support of the degree program - includes advising students; securing practicum and field sites; developing, supervising and monitoring the field placement seminar and teaching policy and practice courses.

MSW required from a CSWE accredited program and at least two years of post-MSW practice experience. Prefer prior college teaching experience and knowledge of social service agencies in southeastern Ohio and LISW-S credential in Ohio or eligible for this license.

Salary is commensurate with experience and includes benefits package.

Open until filled. For full consideration, please apply by September 28, 2014. For details and to apply, go to <http://www.ohiouniversityjobs.com/postings/10688>.

Ohio University is an EO/AA institution.