JOB OPPORTUNITY POSTING

Job Title:	President
Employer/Agency:	The Council on Social Work Education – Alexandria, Virginia
Job Description:	The Council on Social Work Education (CSWE) is the preeminent organization convening and representing social work education in the United States and its territories, Puerto Rico and Guam, and is recognized as the accrediting body for social work programs at the baccalaureate and masters levels nationally. To lead the organization into the future, CSWE seeks a president to serve as its chief executive officer. Reporting to the board of directors and managing a budget of $5 million and a staff of more than 30, the president will lead CSWE during a period when higher education has become increasingly visible as a matter of national and international policy. The president of CSWE, which is headquartered in Alexandria, VA, will work closely with the board and membership to add the voice of social work education to these national and international discussions.
Qualifications:	The president must be an accomplished leader with a proven track record of securing external funds and a history of productive working relationships with governing boards. Ideally, the president will have an earned advanced degree and a social work degree and should be grounded in the core values of social work through a significant professional history in social work education. Moreover, the ability to lead effectively within a national membership organization is paramount.
