Dear Colleague:

The University of Nevada Reno's (UNR) Sanford Center for Aging (SCA) is seeking applications and nominations for a newly created position, Associate Director of Community and Social Services. I am writing to request your assistance in identifying qualified candidates who have the skills needed to fill this dynamic position.

This leadership position will work with the SCA Director and clinic Medical Director to plan, launch and staff a new interdisciplinary geriatric clinic being developed by the University of Nevada, Reno Division of Health Sciences. Responsibilities within the clinic will include leading comprehensive psychosocial assessment, service planning, community referrals, and navigation services (i.e., care coordination) serving elders throughout Northern Nevada. The position also entails preparing grant proposals and taking a leadership role in clinical research activities. Critical to success will be the individual's ability to engage with a wide range of community partners who will be collaborating with the Center. Additionally, as part of the SCA leadership team, this individual will provide direction to the portfolio of community outreach programs offered by SCA and supervises three project coordinators as direct reports. Finally, this individual will also teach gerontology-relevant courses within the School of Social Work at the University of Nevada, Reno.

Although we have advertised this position in important publications related to the profession, we have found that personal recommendations are important to identify the most qualified individuals. We ask for your assistance by encouraging people with whom you come in contact to apply for this job at the University of Nevada, Reno, Sanford Center for Aging. The required qualifications are a Master's Degree in Social Work and a Doctorate degree in a related field and two years of experience leading the psychosocial assessment, planning, and community referrals as part of a gerontology or geriatric clinic team. Enclosed is a copy of our search flyer. Thank you for forwarding this information to individuals you feel appropriate for this opportunity.

Sincerely,

Peter Reed, PhD MPH
